

IMAGINE THIS...

... a successful woman is at lunch with her girlfriends and says "There's got to be more to life than this! What happened to our little girl dreams?"

- ... We are women who are in great demand.
- ... We are motivated to make more money for our family and charitable organizations.
- ... We are teachers, coaches and mentors.
- ... We enjoy professional and personal growth.
- ... We love to make other women feel beautiful, powerful and important.
- ... We can make decisions quickly.

If we had the power to design our dream job, what would we want?

- ★ 50% commission on all sales
- ★ 50% off of our personal purchases
- ★ 50% commission on all reorders...passive income
- ★ Receive commissions from the company based on the sales of our team...from 4% to 36%
- ★ Flexible work hours so we can create our own schedules and take time off when we choose
- ★ Present products face-to-face and online with no quotas and no territories
- ★ Our faith and family must be a priority
- ★ Receive positive recognition with prizes and great bonuses
- ★ Represent a powerhouse product line that is tested to EU Standards with over 1700 patents
- ★ Our advancements must be based on our own efforts
- ★ Have the opportunity to earn the use of a new career car every two years
- ★ Have a Family Security Program that we don't have to contribute to and isn't tied to the stock market

They all laughed and said there's no way a job like this exists!
